Sponsorship Page

In five-years, I lost my career, my health, my loved ones, and my marriage! Oh, how I wished for a community to help me recover from those life cards. I didn't give up! I took control of my life and changed my diet, moved to another city, and began to exercise. Now, I live a life that is better than my dreams! I decided to create a community that uses my experiences to overcome life challenges so that our members don't waste time and are motivated through positive social interactions to take control and make beneficial changes in their lives!

You can help! I invite you to join our community as a sponsor for our events. With your support, we can create a community that support people who want to break down the walls in their lives that stop them from living lives that exceed their dreams!
